

All for me grog

Traditional sea son - Seefahrerlied

The image shows a musical score for the song 'All for me grog'. It consists of three staves of music in 4/4 time, written in a key with one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are: 'It's all for me grog, me jol-ly jol-ly grog.' The second staff continues the melody: 'All gone for beer and to- bac-co, for I spent all me tin on the'. The third staff concludes the phrase: 'las-sies drin-king gin, far ac - ross the wes-tern o-cean I must wan- der.' The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and rests, with measure numbers 1 through 9 indicated above the notes.

It's all for me grog, me jol-ly jol-ly grog.

All gone for beer and to- bac-co, for I spent all me tin on the las-sies drin-king gin, far ac - ross the wes-tern o-cean I must wan- der.

Refrain:

Well it's all for me grog, me jolly, jolly grog.

It's all for me beer and tobacco,

For I spent all me tin on the lassies drinking gin,

Far across the western ocean I must wander.

Where are me boots, me noggin', noggin' boots?

They're all gone for beer and tobacco,

For the heels they are worn out and the toes are kicked about

And the soles are looking out for better weather.

Where is me shirt, me noggin', noggin' shirt?

It's all gone for beer and tobacco,

For the collar is all worn, and the sleeves they are all torn,

And the tail is looking out for better weather.

I'm sick in the head and I haven't been to bed,

Since first I came ashore from me slumber,

For I spent all me dough on the lassies don't you know,

Far across the western ocean I must wander.
